JONES BROTHERS DISCHARGED.

Arrested on Charge of Killing Charles Jennings—Jennings Found at Mercantile.

Another chapter in the Crawley-Jennings trouble developed Saturday when William Jones, who married Mrs. Samuel Crawley on last Wednesday evening, and his brother, Joe Jones, were arrested on the charge of killing Charles Jennings on the night of Dec. 21st. The charge was based on the statements of two small boys, George and Joe Crump, and Mrs. Ellis Coffman, who were at Mrs. Crawley's home on that night. These three stated that the two Jones brothers were present at Mrs. Crawley's that night and, that hearing a noise in the yard they went out and shot four times the first time, and then went out again and fired seven shots, and at the last shot someone groaned as if they were wounded. The authorities knew nothing of it until last Saturday. The Jones' were arrested and held in jail until Monday when they were released on bonds of $5,000. The Sheriff searched for the body on Monday but found no traces.

The preliminary hearing, which was set for Wednesday was not held and the Jones brothers were discharged.

Mr. B. H. Marbury received information Wednesday afternoon that Jennings is working at Herculaneum and has been there since Dec. 24th.

Miss Ella Sackman returned Sunday to French Village to resume her work as teacher at that place.

THE FIRST PATIENT

For State Hospital for the Insane No. 4 Comes from St. Genevieve County.

From the St. Genevieve News.
Miss Rosine Iseman of New Orleans was brought to this city Tuesday to appear before a special session of the County Court, where she was pronounced insane and ordered taken to the Farmington Insane Asylum.

This is the first patient to be sent to the new asylum from this county. She will be removed to that institution as soon as it is open and in proper shape to receive dements, which will be, if we are authentically informed, during the first week of 1903.

Miss Iseman has been in this condition for some time. She was once taken to St. Vincents Insane Asylum at St. Louis and returned apparently cured, but a few months ago the old disease again came upon her and at present it is considered dangerous to keep her at home. She will most likely be the first one that the new asylum will receive.
